SUMMARY BOX (CONTINUED)
Can I withdraw money?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No withdrawals are allowed other than closure.• Early closure is allowed but you will be charged an amount equal to 200 days' interest. We will work this out at the rate at which we pay interest on your fixed term deposit account.• If the account holder dies, we will repay the deposit and interest up to the date of early closure on receipt of a request to do so, without any early closure charge.• A maturity letter will be sent to you at least 30 days before the account maturity date. If your maturity instructions are not received before the maturity date, your account will automatically be rolled over to a Scottish Widows Bank Maturity Base Rate Tracker Account with interest payable at the Bank of England base rate.• If you close the account and wish to withdraw your money the same day by CHAPS payment, a charge will be applied to cover our transfer costs. Withdrawal by other forms of electronic transfer will be made free of charge.
Additional information	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• There is a 14-day cancellation period from the account opening date during which the account can be closed without any charge.• AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest was paid and compounded once each year.• Gross rate means we will not deduct tax from the interest we pay on money in the account. It's your responsibility to pay any tax you may owe to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC).
